

POSITION DESCRIPTION

Geography and Social Studies teacher

RESPONSIBLE FOR:

The delivery of the Social Studies Curriculum to students Years 7-11 and the Geography curriculum to students in Years 11 – to 13.

DESIRABLE ATTRIBUTES:

The Teacher will:

- be a specialist teacher, able to teach Geography to Level 3 and Scholarship
- have effective team skills and a love of teaching
- have a sound knowledge of the NZ curriculum
- have effective communication skills
- be enthusiastic in approach to classroom teaching
- integrate ICT effectively as a learning medium.

TEACHING RESPONSIBILITIES:

The Teacher will be responsible to the Principal through the Academic Director and designated Head of Department for all activities within the School and will:

- be familiar with the New Zealand Curriculum
- be able to work positively and co-operatively within the Department and Marsden Karori staff team
- be an active, co-operative and positive participant in staff and departmental planning
- fulfil all professional requirements as requested by the Principal, Academic Director or Head of Department.

The Teacher will be committed to both personal and professional development.